

North London Shotokan Karate Centre is proud to invite from Australia:-

Sensei Keith Geyer 7th Dan

Sensei Keith competed in the international arena for 14 years, representing South Africa against the United States of America, England, Germany, Belgium, Switzerland, Canada and Italy. He won the South African Open All Styles Kumite title six times and was a three-time winner of the South African JKA Kumite title. During the period from 1982 to 1988, Keith captained the South African national team.

Sensei Keith has coached several junior Karate-ka that have either won world championships or been placed in the top three and continues to train world class Karateka at his dojo in Melbourne, Australia.

When: Monday 28th June 2010

Venue: Ashmole School, (off) Arlington Road, Southgate, London,
N14

From: 7-9pm

Cost: £10.00

This course is for brown and black belts only and is a very special opportunity to train with a karate legend! Please do not miss out on this great opportunity.